

7:45am

Delegates started with an unmoderated caucus where each country exposed their requirements to protect their athletes rights. The outstanding delegations were Afghanistan, Russia, Italy and South Arabia as each delegation claimed the organization of France for denying certain rights during France 2024.

8:00am

The delegation of Afghanistan demanded the cultural rights of woman during the Paris 2024 Olympic games; the delegation showed the importance to allow Afghanistan women to wear the hijab during the sports events; as well she ask to allow the participation of married athletes during the Olympic games.

10:40 Am

Interview with Russia: Why is the IOC violating a right to Russia at not allowing them to participate at the olympic games?

Because athletes are paying a political price that goes beyond the sporting aspect. The accusation of genocide is unfair.

10:50 Am

Interview with Italy: What are the main proposals to ensure the rights of athletes?

1. Prioritize rights over religion
2. Improve the quality of facilities to improve comfort
3. Improve food services for athletes' needs
4. To improve physical and mental health, it is necessary to create a space where athletes can relax and prepare. 24-hour clinical center
5. Seine River -> despite France's efforts, this has not been achieved. Ensure safe drinking water

11:00am

The committee started the lobby time with the working papers divided in two groups; the working paper 1.1.1 lead by France and Italy in seek to ensure human rights to the athletes rather than prioritizing cultural and religious traditions. On the other side, the working paper 1.1.2 was lead by the delegations of Afghanistan and Saudi Arabia, who proposed to give more importance to the religious and cultural traditions rather their performance at the olympic games.

12:10pm

The working paper 1.1.2 was read proposing transparent sport practice, gender inclusion programs during the Olympic games, and safe religious clothing for athletes. The delegations involved were in seek of religious and cultural integration for athletes. Nevertheless, the working paper didn't pass.

12:20am

The working paper 1.1.1 was read, the proposal was lead by the delegations of France and Italy which proposed to ensure the rights of athletes. The priority was to have a meal plan for athletes, use technological resources from Italy to help with health ensurance, and change carboard beds into mattress. This working paper was in search of providing a good quality life for athletes. After the voting process the working paper passed.